RSPCA Victoria is a long established and award winning employer (around 350 employees & many volunteers) based in Burwood East, Melbourne. It provides services across multiple State locations, and is justifiably held in high regard for the work it does throughout the Victorian community.

Your new role will support the senior team (including the CEO), and the organisation at large, to further enhance and help bring increased depth, consistency and integration to the overall enterprise planning system and its follow through. Your initial focus will be on establishing relationships and credibility, working across the organisation to consolidate (& develop) the existing planning processes, and also preparing approaches to review strategic planning progress in mid 2010.

You are passionate about (& experienced in) establishing, facilitating and enhancing planning processes, systems and thinking approaches to support progressive achievement of organisation objectives. Appropriately tertiary qualified, you are flexible in style and applied influencing skills, as well as analytical and facilitative by nature.
