

GUS

Welsh mountain pony

Gus is a white Welsh Mountain Pony who is big for his breed. He arrived at the RSPCA in November 2004 with overgrown hooves and has a tendency to become very overweight – just like his companion Luci.

Horses and ponies should see a farrier to have their feet trimmed every 6-8 weeks and, unfortunately, overgrown hooves is a common problem found by RSPCA Inspectors.