

RATS

Domesticated rats

Rats play an important role in our education barn. They are very friendly, affectionate and social little animals who make wonderful first pets.

They are easy to look after and love to spend time climbing and running around their multi-storied rat house.

They groom themselves to keep clean, and daily handling is recommended to keep them well socialised and happy.

Can you count how many rats are living in the house?